

To the Table by Zach Williams

Piano

Order: V1 - C - V2 - C2 - I - B - C

Intro: A D A D

Verse 1:

A D
Here the voice of love that's calling
A D
There's a chair that waits for you
F#m D
And a friend who understands
A D
everything you're going through
A D
But you keep standing at a distance
A D
In the shadow of your shame
F#m D
But there's a light of hope that's shining
D E
Won't you come and take your place?

Chorus:

F#m D A
And bring it all to the table
F#m D A
It's nothing he ain't seen before
F#m D
For all your sin, all your sorrow,
A and your sadness
F#m
There's Savior and he calls
D A
Bring it all to the table

Verse 2:

A D
He can see the weight you carry
A D
The fears haunt your heart
F#m D A
Through the cross you've been forgiven
E
You're accepted as you are

Chorus 2:

F#m D A
And bring it all to the table
F#m D A
It's nothing he ain't seen before
F#m D A
For all your trails, worries, and your burdens
F#m
There's Savior and he calls
D A
Bring it all to the table

Instrumental:

F#m D A (x4)

Bridge:

F#m D
Come on in take your place
A E
There's no one who's turned away
F#m D
All you sinners, all you saints
A E
Come right in and find your grace

(chorus 1)
