Narration Part One

In a moment, everything can change. Hope turns
To fear, joy turns to sorrow, and the light we Long to see is consumed by the darkness. Those Who walk through the valley cannot see the Light among the towering shadows. But the Light is still there. Each speck of light
Begins with the darkness that it breaks
And at first, we see but a glimpse; yet
What started as a small beam of light through
A pinhole begins to grow and grow. And those Who walk in the darkness will soon see a great Light.

Verse 1

Em/G
A great light dawns in Galilee
Bm/F#
Some say mad man, some say King
Dm/F
Wonder working rebel priest
C/E
Jesus Christ the Nazarene
Em/G
He knew well what would it take
Bm/F#
To free us all from sin and grave
Dm/F
A perfect man would have to die
And only He could pay that price

Chorus 1

G
Friday's good 'cause Sunday is coming
C
Don't lose hope cause Sunday is coming

Devil you're done, You better start running
C x
Friday's good 'cause Sunday is coming

Narration Part Two

Jesus said, "I am the light of the world.
Whoever follows me will not walk in Darkness but will have the light of life."
Our light exists to reflect the light of Christ. In the presence of every shadow
In response to every darkness, we are
The Light of the World. And we do not Reflect His light because we aim to be Seen. No, we shine bright like a city
On a hill. For on a hill called Calvary
Jesus Christ suffered and died for the Sins of the world. But for a moment
The Light of Christ was consumed by
The darkness.

Verse 2

Em/G
So He let those soldiers take Him in
Bm/F#
As His friend betrayed Him with a kiss
Dm/F
There before the mocking crowd
Dsus
Like a lamb to the slaughter
G/B
Didn't make a sound
C Am
Then he carried that cross to Calvary
G G/B
And He shed His blood to set us free
C Em
As the nails went in and the sky went dark
Dsus
The redemption of the world
x
Was on His heart
